“ Dear Wright family, My name is Winter. I am a participant in an international volunteer work. I am sorry for your loss. In my work I offer comfort from the Scriptures to people that have lost their loved ones in death. An example, of what I share with them is at Isaiah 25:8,9 which reads:He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. 9 And in that day one will certainly say: "Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him." Did you notice the verses say death will be no more? John 5:28-29 reads:Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. How comforting that scripture is for you because it tells you that your husband will be ressurected to life! These verses have helped me get through the bereavement. I hope they will do the same for you. Very Truly, Winter Gainey
