“ We lost one of my best friends in this lifetime today - my Grand Mom Ruth. She was one of the strongest, determined, smart, quick witted and humorous people I have ever known. She was always the life of the party. She had a zest for life that was contagious. I learned so much from her and have been so blessed to have her in my life so long. I have so many wonderful memories and will be forever grateful for them all. Until we meet again...
