“ Dear Ruth, Thank you (and Ronnie) for introducing me to Jesus 34 years ago. Because of that introduction many souls were saved and are in heaven with you and the Lord right now. I look forward to seeing you and my loved ones again where there will be no more weeping and no more separation. I miss you and feel real sad at your passing. But knowing you were a believer makes me feel joyful that you're in a better place for all eternity. Love, Maria

“ Our sincere sympathy and love to Ruth's family and friends. She was a very special lady and so precious to our family. We will miss her smile and how she shared the love of Jesus every day of her life. We will forever miss her greeting every Sunday at Leesburgh First Assembly. When we walked in, we knew we were welcomed and loved. May you feel God's presence, peace and comfort as you walk thru the sad days ahead knowing Ruth will always be alive in all our hearts.
