

Ruth Storer

March 9, 2012

Obituary of Ruth Storer

Ruth Arvene Storer, 78 (Lady Lake, Florida since 1990) passed away on Friday, March 9, ending a prolonged battle with pulmonary fibrosis. She is survived by her loving husband, Raymond (Pete) Storer. She was the beloved mother of her three sons, Douglas (Orlando, Florida), Jeffrey (Durham, North Carolina) and Gregory (formerly of Winter Park, Florida, 1956-1992) and grandmother of Amelia, Caroline and Andrew Storer (Winter Park, Florida.) She was also survived by her daughter-in-law, Lyndajoy Storer. Ruth and Pete (who were born and raised in Kansas City, Kansas) recently celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary. Ruth graduated from Wyandotte High School in Kansas City, Kansas. They were charter members of Northlake Presbyterian Church in Lady Lake, Florida. They lived together at Recreation Plantation. She taught her three boys how to live, how to laugh and how to love. She will be sorely missed by all of her friends and family. Contributions in her memory may be made to The National Aids Foundation or Cornerstone Hospice of The Villages, 601 Casa Bella, The Villages, FL 32162.

Tribute Wall

“ Ruth Storer

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ So sorry to hear about Ruth. She and Pete raised a beautiful family together and will be missed by all who knew her. Our thoughts and prayers will be with your family through this difficult time.

Theresa Pickard - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM