“ I often thought about Madame Weber. Tried finding her over the years to say hello. She was an inspiration for me. I majored in French and other foreign languages in college and went on to Europe for undergrad and back to NYC for grad international studies. She let me skip French II to catch up to my class. French was the best experience. Mme let us swim in her pool during summer break. I loved her dog "Ugly." Such an exception person. Kevin ONeil PSH78.

“ I was very saddened to hear about the passing of Madame Weber, who was my favorite teacher at Parma Senior High School during the early '70s. She took the time to work with me when I was new to the community and school district in 10th grade. By my senior year, I was tutoring French I students (at her request), and it's fair to say that she saw something in me that I didn't see in myself. Eventually I began a 30-year career teaching French at Chardon High School in northeast Ohio, and she set the foundation for the kind of teacher and person I would be. I'm happy to say that I was able to contact her for a phone conversation several years ago to catch up and express my gratitude. Merci mille fois, Madame. My condolences to the Weber family.

“Madame Weber was my favorite teacher at Parma Senior High School. I had thought about her over the years and wondered how she was doing. In January this year I looked up her address on the internet and sent her a letter. I was very pleasantly surprised when a month later I received a letter back from her. I am sad that I won't be able to take her up on her offer "You are welcome to come visit." Thank you Madame for the impact you had on me, it was more than you could know.

My sympathies and condolences to her family and friends.

Jon and I have truly loved getting to know Ruth and Dave over the years. Ruth will surely be missed. She was always so inspiring to me how she stayed so active as she aged. She was amazing and uplifting and a great sense of humor. I would have loved it if I were in her class back when she was teaching. I'm sure she was an amazing and interesting teacher.

Please know the family is in our prayers. We loved her.

Madame Weber was a favorite teacher of mine. I loved all three years of my French classes with her. I was Mr. Weber's mini- secretary in the wrestling office in my junior and senior year....just loved the two of them. My condolences to the family and to Ruth- reposez en paix ❤️
