“ I came across "Uncle" Dickey's obituary when looking for people who knew my dad, Fred "Butch" Franz, who passed away suddenly on May 17th, just a week ago, at age 74. I only knew Dickey briefly, but felt as if I was a part of his extended family and was privileged to call him "Uncle" during my seven years living near Leesburg. I fondly remember stories of his exploits related by my dad when they worked together. I also remember a 'safari' at the 'ranch' (I think it was called that) in his Toyota 'tater digger' 4wd. My sincere condolences go to all who loved Dickey, especially his wife and children, for whom such a loss, I now know from personal experience, is among the most life-changing events one can experience.

“ Sorry for the family, of the loss of a really great person. Dickey was special person. Likeable, friendly, country to the bone. Smart and outgoing. To meet him, was to like him. Dickey and Odessa were a true pair together. His family cared for him till the end. I wish he could have stayed young forever. Now he is, forever young.. God bless and my condolences to his family. margaret. Paul told me today, he grew up knowing Dickey,,part of him is gone now too, he misses him so much.
