

Sally Ann Taylor

January 21, 1957 - June 27, 2025

Sally Ann Taylor (Pickance)

January 21, 1957 – June 27, 2025

Sally Ann Taylor, 68, of Lady Lake, Florida, passed away suddenly but peacefully from a short illness on June 27, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Sally was born on January 21, 1957, in Exeter, New Hampshire to Lester and Edith Pickance. Sally was a proud graduate of Exeter High School, Class of 1975. She spent much of her professional life working as a dedicated bookkeeper and office manager for various small businesses, retiring from Northeast Power Equipment in Epsom, NH in 2018.

Sally was known for her vivacious personality, infectious laugh, and heartwarming hugs (eeya eeya). She had a remarkable gift for connecting with people, never meeting a stranger, and her love for her friends and family was boundless. She had a deep and abiding love for her grandchildren, whom she cherished more than anything in the world.

A generous spirit, Sally was always ready to lend a hand, offer support, or brighten someone's day with a thoughtful gesture or a batch of her famous chocolate chip cookies, which she shared with everyone and brought to every special occasion.

Sally loved to plan trips with her husband, friends, family, and visits with her grandchildren, where so many laughs and so much fun was always had. She was also the most passionate New England Patriots football fan, and shared that passion with her “Brady’s Bunch” football pool that she ran for many years.

Sally is survived by her beloved husband, Stephen L. Taylor; her children, Paul Langdon of Lago Vista, TX; Lisa Langdon of Round Rock, TX; and Dorothy Ferrick and husband Michael of Pflugerville, TX; and her treasured grandchildren, Wren Langdon, Olivia Ferrick and Gavin Ferrick. She also leaves behind her parents, Lester and Edith Pickance; her sisters, Beverly Barney of Nottingham, NH and Wendy Clark of Strafford, NH; and many loving cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws, and dear friends.

She was predeceased by her brother, Thomas Pickance.

Sally’s warmth, generosity, and unwavering love will be missed by all who were lucky enough to know her.

Sally’s ashes will be interred at the Exeter, NH Cemetery and a celebration of life will be held in NH at a later date and details will be shared once available.

Tribute Wall

JL

“ Sally had the most infectious laugh n biggest heart. She welcomes you in her home n life with open arms n a big hug when she d see you. I had the pleasure of meeting sally n steve her husband and was her neighbor for 3 months. We shared great lasagna ,margaritas n lots of laughs. She will be very much missed. May you rest in eternal peace my friend n may god nless.thank you for sharing you with me.big hugs ! Jane jane lapointe - July 01, 2025 at 08:32 PM

LL

♥♥ thank you for your kind words. 🙏

Lisa Langdon - July 01, 2025 at 09:11 PM

LM

“ She was a happy very giving person always think to give to someone what she could ps made great chocolate chip cookies .so sad we lost a Bautiful person so young my thoughts are with her whole family

Lucille Murphy - June 30, 2025 at 02:47 PM

LL

Thank you for sharing. ♥♥

Lisa Langdon - July 01, 2025 at 09:13 PM

HM

“ I spent many fun times with Sally and even helped in my brothers office at Northeast forklifts a couple of times. Sally had a Hugh heart and a loving gal. I will miss her♥♥

Holly Bailey McCoy - June 30, 2025 at 12:16 PM

LL

Thank you for your sweet words, Holly.

Lisa Langdon - June 30, 2025 at 01:18 PM

SP

“ So Sorry to hear this News. I remember we where at a bar one night having drinks and the bar tender started Ignoring us. So we walked out on our bill. 😂🙄

Suzanne Plummer - June 30, 2025 at 11:41 AM

LL

OMG, Suzanne. Haha! Talk about funny times. :)

Lisa Langdon - June 30, 2025 at 01:17 PM