“ Sam was one of my favorite bosses at McAuto. Besides having that in common we also commiserated about our prostate cancer. We shared many emails about our mutual condition. Sam provided me a lot of insight as I went through my 40 days of radiation. We were on the opposite side of politics but that did not interfere with our frequent communications. When I got laid off from McAuto in 1989 Sam was quick create a part time job for me until I found full time employment. While Sam was in St. Charles I came over for a pool party and met his family. Sam and my wife Kathy got along very well too at McAuto. Sam and my relationship thrived from 1979 to his unfortunate passing. I will miss Sam. To Sam's family, please accept my condolences.
