

Sandie Hawthorne

July 22, 1942 - March 26, 2025

Sandie Hawthorne, 82, of The Villages, FL, passed away peacefully on March 26th, 2025. She was the beloved wife of Jon Hawthorne and mom to Doug and Brad.

Sandie was born in Wood River, IL on July 22, 1942. She graduated from East Alton/Wood River high school and went north to Bloomington to become a theatre major at Illinois Wesleyan. There, she met and fell in love with Jon (a 3-sport athlete) and that led to a 60 year marriage.

Sandie started her professional career in Elmhurst, selling Real estate for Red Carpet, while Jon was coaching basketball and baseball at Elmhurst college.

The family then moved to Normal, IL where Sandie sold real estate for Armstrong, as well as Kaiser Realty, where she was a regular million-dollar seller.

For many years, one of Sandie's roles was a coach's wife and cheerleader for the boys and their many sports endeavors. And nobody did it better than mom.

Sandie and Jon moved to the villages in 2004 and she soon dove head-long into The Villages Musical Theatre Company, as well as The Villages Theatre

Company. Her list of outstanding productions is quite prolific and impressive:

Octet Bridge Club-2007

For those who were fortunate to be guided on stage under her hand, you remember how much you learned in basic stagecraft, techniques in development of character and fine points in dialogue and movement. More than that, however, you remember kindness, professionalism, humor and a whole lot of energy.

Sandie was a board member of The Villages Musical Theatre and its' Chair for many years. She guided the group through many difficult decisions and policy changes. She was an absolute model of an efficient administrator who understood the needs of its members and worked very hard to insure great stage opportunities for its members.

Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel...an Angel that sings, dances, acts, directs, inspires, loves...the list goes on and on. Her memory will always live on in our hearts.

To see Sandie star in a play written for her about her life , look for "Come Fly With Me" on YouTube.

A viewing will take place on Saturday, April 5th, 2025 at Beyer's Funeral Home in Lady Lake at 3:00, with a service at 4:00PM.

Flowers can be sent to Beyers Funeral Home.

Donations can be made to one of Sandie's two favorite charities - Tunnel To Towers and St Jude Children's Hospital.

“ Dear Jon, my heart is still breaking ever since I read Sandie's obituary this morning in the Pantagraph. I know your grief is much more intense, but I'm glad your two sons will be there to support and help you. I'm sure she was the most courageous woman I've ever known. I still remember watching her play the lead in "Annie Get Your Gun" when she was still a student at IWU. And all those wonderful visits you shared with Judie and me in The Villages. We will never forget those special times. God bless my friend, God bless. Jim Bennett “ Sandie was a Sweet Adeline (bass) who was always managed to stay upbeat--cheering us on even when illness forced her to retire from the group.

“ I was fortunate to have met Sandie in two states and two separate lives. I first knew her as a successful realtor as I grew up in the Bloomington/Normal area, in Downs, Illinois. Upon moving to the Villages, I met Sandie again when she came backstage after my first show and said, "I want to see that gal from Downs!" So good to see her again in a new hometown! After that, I was blessed to get to work with her on Curious Savage and Ghost of a Chance. Her smile, friendliness, and expertise will be missed. She was a treasure to all she met. May many family memories bring you comfort!

“ Sandie was my first director in my first VTC play after I moved here. And she was GREAT and I loved working for/with her. And since she was so great, I stayed with VTC for all these years and loved seeing her (and Jon too, of course) at all the VTC shows/events. And we had another bond since our daughter also has MS and Sandie and us often talked about our Donna.

Jon was a saint as her caregiver and he and the boys will certainly miss her--as will we all. We hope you all have many fond memories of your years together to give you strength now.

Warmly and fondly,

Richard and Janice Behrendt
