“ Hey Grandma,

I don't know how to put what I want to say into words because words cannot express everything that you have done for me and words cannot express everything you have given me. One of the best gifts you have given me was when you moved to Florida and I was able to see you everyday when I was home from school. You always gave me someone to talk to and you always were wanting to play a game of cards.

I cannot thank you enough for everything you have done and I will always love you Grandma Sany

“ I am so sorry for the passing of Sandra, my condolences to her Family. I hope God's promise can give your Family comfort during this difficult time. Revelation 21:4-"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Soon God will do away with death and suffering and we will see our loved ones again.

“ Mom I love you so very much. The only comfort I have right now is knowing you are no longer in pain. To have you here and share the last 2 years of your life with me was the best gift anyone could receive. I wish you could have enjoyed it a little bit more but we had some life long memories that I can cherish. You had wonderful times both grand kids and watched them move on to college. You gave Samantha a grand parent that she didn't have and I have more memories not only from the last two years but from the beginning then most mother and sons ever have. For that, I am truly blessed.

I will miss you more than I can ever put into words.
