“ Myron, I am so very sorry to hear of Sandys passing. I just saw it this afternoon. I was really surprised to hear this. Also so very sad to hear this. I have fond memories of you both coming into my shop and chatting a little over photographs and memories. I know this is a very difficult time for you; I can remember those terrible days myself, and it is heartbreaking to have to go through them. But I learned that you have to grieve, you HAVE to, please dont hold your feelings in, its more difficult in the long run. Again, Im so upset to hear this, she was a wonderful person who I will always remember fondly. Sincerely, Donna Thompson (Framemakers-retired)

“ Myron,

I have praying for you and your family all week; when there are no words, there are always prayers lifting you up to our Lord. These are times that, while I so wish I were closer, I know God can be a better help. While I support you in your loss and your grief, I pray you can have your pain lightened by knowing that Sandy has done what God called her to do in this life and called her home. She is the one who is in a better place and will help carry you through the days ahead. You have posted many pictures of sunsets for us to enjoy. Keep looking at them for you may spot her there.

“ Myron,

I extend my, and my families, deepest sympathies to you and your family on the loss of your beloved, Sandy. There are few words to offer comfort, but I know that in your heart and in the 1,000's of DNG's, CEF's, PNG's and PDF's we photographers keep, there are countless still moments and memories that you will cherish for a lifetime. You were truly blessed to have each other and to share a beautiful life of love and business together. May the memory of her words, smile and compassion lighten your sorrow and bring you joy.
