Obituary of Sara Millison

Sara McKee Millison, 100, of Leesburg, Fl, formerly of Butler, Pa, passed away peacefully Monday September 21, 2015 in Leesburg.

Born in New Castle, Pa August 12, 1915 to William E. and Jennie (McMillin) McKee, Sara was the middle child, having an older and younger brother.

Sara graduated from New Castle High School and Grove City College, Grove City, Pa. After graduating from college she taught high school in the New Castle area. Deeply committed to her faith, she then spent three years in Egypt as a missionary. Upon returning to the States, Sara accepted the position as secretary to the President of Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa. On June 9, 1952 she married the widowed Rev. Henry L. Millison, who had a 6 year old son. Future homes would be in parishes in Philadelphia and Western Pennsylvania.

Sara was a gracious hostess and enjoyed helping people. She liked to cook, sew and travel. Upon Henry's retirement, they took a trip around the world visiting places they always wanted to see. She was a versatile person and adapted easily to new situations. She was a joy to be with. We will miss her.

Preceding her in death were her husband Rev. Henry L. Millison DD; stepson Rev. Leonard E. Millison; brothers James R. McKee and Edward M. McKee. Surviving are a niece, Elizabeth Walker of New Castle, Pa and a nephew Richard McKee of Georgetown, Tx.

Memorial Service will be held on Monday, October 5, 2015 at The First Presbyterian Church of Leesburg, FL at 11:00am. Interment will be in Springfield Cemetery, Mercer County, Pa.
