“ There are few words in times like this that comfort us. But to know that Scott was a faithful man who loved his Lord and to know that God is still in control, shall comfort us and give us peace until we shall meet again one day. Until then Scott will be fishing in Heaven and relaxing along the banks of the river. Ms. Strong and family, know that our thoughts and prayers have been and will be with you all. Times like this tend to make us question our God. It is these times that will proof us in the fires of life and through them we will stand stronger in God, through our faith. Gene & Gail King

“ It was with a great sense of loss when I heard of Scott's death. I wanted to let you know that you have my deepest sympathy, and my heart is truly saddened. Words seem inadequate to express the sorrow I feel. I will miss Scott, he has touched so many people in his life and his loss will be felt by all. Scott was more than a wonderful person; as a School Board Member, he brought out the best in people through his high expectations and always positive and considerate approach to issues. I am honored to have worked for Scott and to have been a friend. I know that his passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of all who knew him. May the love of those around you help you through the days ahead. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Lori, We were so saddened to hear about the accident. Know that you and the kids are in our prayers and our church right across the street from your own church lifted the entire congregation in prayer yesterday at the start of our service. I met Scott's sister on Saturday by chance on the side of the road. It was an amazing encounter. She was very upset but we both left the encounter the better for it. I pray the friends and family can do that for you also.

“ It was always nice to see Scott and to have him as a friend. His love for his wife and children was inspiring to me. You could just tell as he talked about them all that here was a man who was genuinely a family man. His unselfish serving on the school board and in many other community organizations show us what a giving servant leader Scott was. Our county will truly miss him. Our prayers are with his entire family.
