

Selwyn Loveless

June 19, 2010

Obituary of Selwyn Loveless

Selwyn A. Loveless, 77, of Leesburg, FL

Selwyn "Sandy" Loveless departed this life Sat. June 19, 2010. He was Born in Ravenna, MO, and the son of the late John E. Loveless and Sue A. Nelson. He served in the US Navy for 21 years (retired) he was stationed in Norfolk, VA, and then continued his work as a welder/ship fitter. He was predeceased by his wife Dorothy, and granddaughter Sandy. Mr. Loveless is survived by two children, Deborah Davis and Charles Loveless, six grandchildren and five great grandchildren. His wishes were to be cremated and cremains to be placed in a niche with his wife at Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL . A graveside service will be held at Florida National Cemetery on July 7, 2010 at 11:00AM with full military honors conducted by The US Navy Honor Guard. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Cornerstone Hospice, 2445 Lane Park Rd, Tavares, FL 32778. Thank You Hospice and Waterman Hospital.

Services

A graveside service will be held at Florida National Cemetery on July 7, 2010 at 11:00AM with full military honors conducted by The US Navy Honor Guard.

Memorial Donations

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Cornerstone Hospice, 2445 Lane Park Rd, Tavares, FL 32778.

Tribute Wall

GW

“ Sandy will be truly missed. He and Dot were the greatest people and it was my pleasure to have know both of them. Rest in peace Sandy.

Ginnie Warburton - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

PL

“ Deborah & Charles, My prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. I knew both your mom & dad and thought very highly of them. I remember going to a dinner theater with them and how much we all laughed. A wonderful memory that I will cherish. God bless you all and always keep your wonderful memories of your parents in your mind and heart.

Pauline Ellison, Adm. Assistant at Highland Lakes - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM