“ I remember her many visits to a store at which I was working. Even during her roughest times, you couldn't wipe her smile away if you tried. She will truly always be a brilliant, loving soul, vehemently committed to lifting the spirits of others. Those whose lives she's touched are truly blessed to have known her, I can attest to that.

“ I can't believe you are gone. I think about you all the time, but that's nothing new. I had been praying for you and thinking about you for a long while You were a blessing in my life, and although we both got busy with family and daily life, you were always one of my best friends. I know I'll see you again one day. I am thankful that you are not in any pain anymore. I am thankful that you are with our Heavenly Father.

For the family: You are all near and dear to my heart and I am praying for your comfort and peace in this difficult time. Love you all!

“ I didn't know Shari but followed her journey on Facebook. Her father is my grandchildren's pastor. I've been praying for this family through this trial and praising God for their faithful testimony. I recently lost my husband to cancer so have walked through this with them. May the mixture of joy and sorrow that comes with her passing into the Presence of Christ Jesus be tempered by the prayers from all over and by the comfort of the Holy Spirit.
