

Sharon Kay Horton

August 13, 1942 - December 23, 2017

Horton, Sharon Kay, 75 years of age, passed away on December 23, 2017 at Brandley House in Summerfield, FL. She was born in Indianapolis, IN in 1942 to her parents Mose Lee and Idabelle Callahan. Sharon went to Seymour High School and Scottsburg High School where she graduated. She went to Spenserian Business College in Louisville, KY and attended classes at Lake Sumter Community College. During her working years she was employed at Eastern Airlines as a stewardess, then a Administrative Secretary with Lake County Public works in various departments such as Parks and Recreation, Transportation, Engineering, and then an Office Associate in Road Operations. She retired after 20 years of service with Lake County Government. Sharon's hobbies included swimming, horseback riding, bowling, and an avid reader. Sharon was passionate about her grandchildren: attending football games, wrestling matches, and dance recitals at every opportunity. She was a member of the Indiana Railway Association of Business Women, Associate Realtor of Hendricks County Board of Realtors, Inc., and Professional Secretaries International, Florida. Sharon is survived by her loving family, son, George S. (Angel) Horton, Ocklawaha, FL; grandchildren, Tristian, Aden, and Ashlynn; brother, Robert L. Callahan; she is preceded in death by her husband, Edward C. Horton. The family will receive friends at the Beyers Funeral Home chapel on Tuesday, January 9, 2018 from 10 AM to 11 AM with a service to follow at 11 AM. She will be laid to rest at Lone Oak Cemetery following the service.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home & Crematory in Leesburg,
FL (352) 787-4343.
