“ Dear Grandma - I wish I would have made it to see you one last time before you fell asleep forever. I know that you are in a better place now with family and friends to catch up with. Everyday the sun shines, I will think of how you made it happen. And everynight when I see the stars I will think about how God's heaven is your blanket so you can softly sleep. I will forever miss you and love you. Until I see you again.....your Grandson, George.
