“ Whatsoever soothes your spirit, comforts your soul and brings you peace...is what I wish for you at this difficult time. Shirley was as stubborn as a mule, as sensitive as an orchid and had a heart bigger than life itself. I am sad for my own loss yet comforted in being absolutely sure that she's in a good place. I will miss you, my friend.

“ We will SURLEY miss you SHIRLEY. We shared some very good times together and I will miss you at Havana. It just will not be the same without you. You wanted to give up your seat next to Bob for George. Guess the Lord saw your footprints and took you away. Fly Free my dear friend.....

“ My husband and I would like to extend our sincere condolences to the family and friends of your beloved Shirlely. The grief felt when we lose a loved one may seem unbearable. At such times, we have gone to the comfort of God's Word,j for he too, feels our pain when one we love dies. (Psalm 34:18) Mom's are teachers never forgotton, remember the experiences you shared together-cherish them always.
