“ From the family of Dwight Taylor, Marilyn, Zella, and Paul, please accept our sincere condolences at the passing of Shirley. Although she married into the Taylor family (quite a while ago) I always considered her very much a close relative. She was very blessed with extreme common sense, and I always appreciated that. “ So very sorry to hear about Shirley, I was out of town and did not hear about her until today. Shirley was my Sunday School Teacher at First Baptist Coleman when I return back to Florida. For the last few years we have worked together at the polls. She was a very special person. I will miss her.

“ Shirley Cash Taylor was my friend from fourth grade until we both moved on to different places and lives. I saw her last at our 50th year from high school graduation reunion. She was a good friend with many talents. My condolences to her children and grandchildren and my regrets for allowing the friendship to be lost.
