“ *November 6th 2020 was a night Ashton stayed with his favorite Aunt Stacy while we went to a football game cause the older kids were playing in the band.
Ashton: my tooth hurts
Aunt Stacy: I'll fix it.
He lost his first tooth that night
The tooth fairy left a whole dollar.
After that, he thought he had to go to Aunt Stacy's when one of his teeth were loose so she could fix it for him.
He will miss her so much and so will we. She's a light that will never go out, it will just shine from afar. Until we meet again my dear.*

Stacy and I met my 1st day at the public defenders office, we became instant friends. I just found out today of her passing and my heart is so broken for her family. She spoke to me often of how special her parents and her husband and son were. She also spoke of her baby girl that she is now finally holding she missed her so much. She was such a sweet person she would walk in my office and say "hey lady bug, how are you feeling today". She knew I had health issues and she always checked on me. RIP beautiful! My prayers are with your family
