He was employed by the A&P Tea Co. for 2 years until being drafted by the US Army during the Korean conflict. He then returned to work for the A&P Tea Co. for another 44 years.

He met his wife, Millie D'ambrosio, when she was shopping at the A&P. After marrying the "love of his life" they moved to Belford, NJ where they raised 5 children. They lived there for 39 years.

While traveling with their friends every year they all decided that they would retire together. One couple found The Villages of Lady Lake and within a span of 2 years, they all moved to Florida. Stan and Millie lived here for 20 years.

He enjoyed golf and bowling. He enjoyed playing mah jongg and pinochle with neighbors & friends. He was an avid Yankee and Giant fan and also had a love for horse racing.

He was a loyal member of St. Vincent DePaul Society. He helped start the paper recycling over 13 years ago. He worked in the pantry for St. Vincent DePaul processing food orders. He and his wife were captains for serving coffee & after the 9:00a.m. mass on Sundays from the time the program was started until he lost his legs in 2014. They worked on the "Christmas Giving Tree" program for 19 years.

He will truly be missed by everyone. He always had a smile on his face and a pleasant disposition despite his disabilities.

“ So sorry to hear about your loss. In the bible Job asked, "can a man live again?. Jesus answered when he said "I am the resurrection and the life, ... Even though he dies, he will come to life. May Jehovah God comfort you and your family during this time.
