

Stanley Jewkes

October 9, 1913 - June 19, 2011

Obituary of Stanley Jewkes

The Villages " Stanley E. Jewkes passed away peacefully Sunday, June 19 with his family by his side. He was born in Boston, Massachusetts October 9, 1913. Educated in England, receiving a BS in Engineering from London University. He also received an Architectural Degree. As an Army Officer in Southeast Asia during World War II, he witnessed Singapore's capture by the Japanese in 1942. Escaping to India he served in the Indian Army. At war's end he spent 17 years in the British Overseas Civil Service, finally serving as Director of Public Works, during Malaysia's transition into an independent country. He designed the Merdeka (Freedom) Stadium where the independence ceremonies were held. He also designed Stadium Negara in Malaysia and the Bangkok Stadium, Thailand. In the early 1960's he returned to the U.S. and joined an international consulting firm as Senior Vice President working in 44 countries. In that position he served as consultant to the United Nations, World Bank, and foreign governments working in many of the world's trouble spots. He is survived by his loving wife of 72 years, Ella of the Villages, his daughter Carole Fittje of Ocala, son Peter Jewkes of New Jersey, son-in-law Virgil Fittje of Ocala, daughter-in-law Barbara Jewkes of New Jersey and granddaughter Kristina Jewkes of New Jersey. A Memorial Service will be held Friday, July 8, 2011 at 9:30 a.m. in the Chapel of St. James Episcopal Church, Leesburg, with Rev. Jay Lambert officiating. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Cornerstone Hospice in memory of Stanley Jewkes. The family expresses special thanks for the many services provided by Beyers Funeral Home.

Services

A Memorial Service will be held Friday, July 8, 2011 at 9:30 a.m. in the Chapel of St. James Episcopal Church, Leesburg, with Rev. Jay Lambert officiating.

Memorial Donations

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Cornerstone Hospice in memory of Stanley Jewkes.

Tribute Wall

“ Stanley Jewkes

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM