“ Mother, Thank you to you and Dad for many Christmas holidays together in Florida as our children grew up; Christmas eve mass, seeing the lights at the farm, going to the villages to see new places or try a new restaurant together. What a wonderful caretaker and companion you have been for your husband, always anticipating and helping him out with anything at all. condolences. love, Ellen and family

“ It hurts to see a loved one leave this earth, Thankfully we have memories to cherish. I know you can be with him again, what a glorious moment that will be! For now treasure the loving relationships you all shared. Nothing is more important than love for one another. Stay close to your church and to God, we have a loving father above who cares & can bless you with comfort. I pray that you may feel peace in your family to carry you forward. Thank you for raising a wonderful son for my sister to be married to ! You must be proud of the dear family you raised together!
