“ Though you have passed through the veil and walk now among the souls of loved ones, your time here on earth will remain alive in the memories created and the love that we shared. Until we meet in our eternal home...

“ Though you walk now among the souls of loved ones, you will remain alive in the loving memories we share. I will miss your wisdom and stubborn persistence, but most of all the comfort in knowing that you were never more than a phone call or short drive away. Until we meet in eternal life...

“ I am so sorry to read of your loss. I know the pain of losing loved ones and it's only natural to wonder why God allows this to happen, but I was comforted in knowing that God views death as an enemy and will soon bring death, sickness, pain and suffering to an end. (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:4) and even more comforting is that He plans to bring our dead loved ones back to life one day. (John 5:28,29) I hope these scriptures help you cope until that day comes.

“ Mommy. You are gone now and may never know how much you meant to us, how much you taught us and how much we will miss you. You are with daddy now and that is where you wanted to be. We will never forget you and can be comforted knowing you are with God. We will love you eternally and may God bless you and daddy.

“ With the gift of years comes the treasure of knowing that there are many who loved you dearly. The memories you've made with us will last forever. The tenderness you've shared with us will never fade. The most wonderful gift you could have ever given is the special part of you that now lives in all of us. The truth your love has taught us can only be strengthened by the gift of time. For where roots grow deep, memories grow forever. Thank you Grandma, we love and miss you terribly, give Grandpa love for us.<3
