Obituary of Steve Dixon

Steve Dixon, 69, of Lady Lake, FL entered into eternity, Dec. 3, 2016, at home with his wife by his side. Steve was a U.S. Army Veteran and after serving his tour, he was employed with Praxair, Indiana until his Retirement in 2007. He and Ruth moved to The Villages where he loved the warm sunny weather, going to car shows and enjoying all the nature Florida had to offer. He is survived by his wife, Ruth; daughter, Chris (Mike) Prochno of Valparaiso, IN; brother, John (Janet) Dixon of Victor, WV; sister, Ann (Jim) Smith of Mobile, AL; and several nieces and nephews. Steve was preceded in death by his father and mother, John Wheeler & Eula Dixon; stepmother, Nyra Dixon; sister, Bobbi Jo Marsh; and brother Charles "Eddie" Dixon. Burial at Florida National Cemetery.

Memorial Donations

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Cornerstone Hospice 601 Casa Bella, The Villages, FL. 32162-3640, (in memory of Richard Steve Dixon), who lovingly cared for Steve in his final days.

“ Dear Ruth, Thank you for sending me the obituary information. I learned a lot about Steve that I didn't know before. I was surprised to find out his real first name. I know your loss is great, but the expectation of seeing Steve and being with him forever in Heaven is even greater. Know that I am here to help you however/whenever I can. Love you, Bev
