“ Karen, my thoughts are with you and you family at this difficult time. I met Steve just once or twice in the short time I've worked for the county. Those short encounters were all I needed to instantly know that Steve was a good man. Witnessing first hand your caring and dedication during his illness has been an inspiration. My prayers are with you.

“ Bob and I knew you for over 25 years. I can remember when I worked with you on your campaign when you first came to Sumter County. You always had the answers I needed when it came to law enforcement. Bob enjoyed going to the gym with you and I appreciate the encouragement you gave him. You will be missed and our prayers go out to Karen and your family.
