“ I remember when I first met Steve when he came to visit our Yonkers home so many years ago. He was very friendly and kind and loved to laugh. He was a good husband, Dad, Grandpa, son-in-law and friend. I can just see him in my mind's eye getting a big round of applause from the Angels when he entered the Pearly Gates. In his life he overcame many difficult hurdles. He was intelligent, resourceful, creative, talented and hardworking. Most of all he loved his family and people in general. He will be much missed.

“ When I first met Valentine, I knew immediately that I’d met a gentle kind man. His wife Karen introduced him to our Optimist Club, and we all liked him immediately. I’ve missed Valentine and Karen since they moved away but still kept them in my heart and treasured their friendship. Karen, I know how much you’ll miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
