Obituary of Stuart Miller

Stuart S. Miller, age 83, died on October 23, 2014 in his home in Leesburg, Florida. Stuart was born in Lindenwold, New Jersey and spent his formative through teen years in Audubon, New Jersey. Stuart served in the US Army from 1951 - 1954. Stuart spent most of his adult life as an entrepreneur and after a brief acting career, he owned and operated a restaurant in Cold Springs, New York. He was ultimately drawn to antique dealership, most recently owning an antique village in Leesburg, Florida. Stuart was predeceased by his domestic partner of fifty years, Edward Porr, his parents Cornelius Malcolm Miller Sr and Mary Strimple Miller and his brother Cornelius Malcolm Miller Jr and sister-in-law Marilyn B. Miller. Stuart is survived by his nephew, Douglas Miller, Suffolk, UK and niece Gail Miller Fusco (John) of West Norriton, Pennsylvania. In addition, Stuart had three grand-nephews, one grand-niece, four great-grand nephews, and two great-grand nieces. Stuart was the quintessential entertainer and his dynamic personality, boundless energy, and mesmerizing story-telling captured many acquaintances throughout his life. Stuart will be laid to rest with military honors at Florida National Cemetery on Monday, November 17, 2014 at 11:30am. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Veteran's Organization of Resource and Recovery for the Homeless (www.vorrh.org).
