“ I have known Sudie since she was 14 or 15. She was a unique individual who was the epitomy of compassion, patience, and goodness. She dedicated her life to be a caretaker for all who needed one. She excelled in "waiting" on anyone who needed anything. She was an excellent cook and anything to do with keeping a house running - paying bills, cleaning, yard work. Also she spent her younger life tending to exoctic animals tigers, lions. Cows, horses, marmesets (a special monkey)If anything needed to be done yiou would no doubt hear someone say, "Where is Sudie". She had a special relations with my husband Bill Bien always calling him "Unkle Bill" which he wasn't. I could go on and on She was just such a special individual. I will always remember her as totally one of a kind - an unusual and smart person - the stars shine on her in my memories Forever Sudie May Pinky
