“ I am, and always have been the gentleman I should have been & it's all because of my Mom, Sue Ann. She taught me respect, how to open doors, and how a lady should be treated. ....

Mom I need you to know that you are & have always been the most influential person in my life, right next to Dad. We all choose our own paths & make our own choices in life, but if your taught there is just no right way to do a wrong thing, the world , earth, Khama, God treats you the way mom wanted me to be treated. I'm blessed to have had the opportunity to ask every question, tell her everything I wanted to and she reciprocated, & it was beautiful but more importantly closes this journey & look forward to our next one, Mom. You were a wonderful mother to be proud of and am glad you were able to see me turn myself around. Class clown lasted for a long time for me, I get the witty from you :-). Pls tell Kelly and my Melody Ann hi and I'll look after Duffy as promised. I'll miss you, but I lost a mother but gained a great father, which is more special than you'll every know!!

So until next time .... let me know your around, I'll be looking!! :-).

Goodbye Mom, I Love You

“ We will miss Sam's wit, laughter and intelligence. She had a keen sense of observation. It was always fun to be with her. We will miss our times together.

“ Sister Sue will be missed, and remembered for her witty sense of humor. So very pleased we got a chance to see her twice in the past year. She told me she had a good life. Keeping the Maleys in our thoughts during this sad time.
