

Susan Bryan Ehreke

June 20, 1946 - April 30, 2026

Susan Bryan Ehreke was born in Washington, D.C., a proud Army and Foreign Service brat, and grew up in Tacoma Park, Maryland; France, Germany, Greece and Scotland. She graduated from Yorktown High School in Virginia and attended Limestone College in S. Carolina and Anne Arundel Community College in Maryland.

An avid equestrian while growing up overseas, she loved horses all of her life. She worked for the U.S. government in Lanham, MD and was awarded several accolades before moving to Yukon, OK. Sue had a career spanning over 50 years in nursing and the medical field while living in Oklahoma.

She was a loyal and devoted wife to her husband, Scott, for 57yrs. and a devout Episcopalian. She loved the beach and the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

Susan was preceded in death by her husband, Scott Ehreke; loving parents, Belton O'Neal and Mildred Bryan; older brother, Belton O'Neal Bryan, Jr.; niece, Kami Bryan Stafford; sister-in-law, Judith Bryan and countless other family members.

She is survived by her devoted daughters, Kimberly Hulett (Mike) of Florida; Kelly Beninghove (Jeff) of Maryland; cherished granddaughters, Soleil and Leila; brothers Richard Bryan & Michael Bryan (Karen); and sister-in-law, Pamela Ehreke Mayberry (Wade).

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Susan's memory to the National Pancreas Foundation, pancreasfoundation.org or the American Diabetes Association, diabetes.org.

Sue would like to be remembered as helpful and caring toward her patients.

Tribute Wall

KW

“ She was the most loving "mom" to me, even more so than my own mother. Her laugh was contagious and just so full of joy. I will miss her more than words can express. The world definitely lost one of its brightest shining lights.

Kelly Webb - May 07 at 02:36 PM