

Susan Graul

October 5, 1921 - January 18, 2010

Obituary of Susan Graul

Susan C. Graul, most recently of Leesburg, FL, passed away Monday, January 18, 2010. Born Susan Ann Crockett on October 5, 1921 in Jasper, SC, she later moved with her family to Norfolk, VA where she attended William and Mary College. Later, as an administrative assistant at Camp Pendleton, she met and married Merlin E. Graul of Madison, WI, a captain in the Army. After living in Pennsylvania and Illinois, Sue and Merle settled in Brookfield, WI and raised 4 children. A love of books led Sue to work for many years in the Reading Department at Waukesha County Technical Institute where she retired in 1985. She loved to travel the country and winters were spent discovering new and wonderful places eventually leading her and her husband to settle at Lake Port Square in Leesburg. Sue loved to dance, play bridge, and simply enjoyed just spending time with family and friends. She will be remembered for her kind nature and beautiful smile.

She is survived by her husband, Merlin; sons Richard (Sharle) of Waukesha, WI; James of Quincy, FL; David (Maryam) of Simi Valley, CA; daughter Liz Ann of Los Altos, CA; three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

“ Dearest Liz, What a beautiful lady your mother was. I can only imagine how heartbreaking this is for you. I know I dread the day. You have wonderful friends to help you through and try to fill the emptiness or should I say the vacuum a mother's death leaves. Please know we are here for you. Our home is yours and you are always welcome. If you need me I will come to visit, too. Your mother was blessed to have such a devoted daughter as you have been. Now she will be your angel, watching over you, sitting on your shoulder next to you all the time. This picture of her is lovely and I can see you in her face. BIG BIG Hugs..I love you so much, girlfriend. I am so sorry for this loss. Love, Jackie
