“ Susy, bubbly and gracious, treated me like a long lost uncle. when she hosted, it was with an intensity you 'must' be comfortable. when she did not speak, her eyes held the conversation. any subject was interesting until you mention her Horses . and the little Buckskin with the baby mind, now we are discussing the arcane. " how did you do that,, how does he know,,, will he remember that,,,, how do you know when he is ready ""? you would run out of ink with her honestly and nearly cosmically delivered questions. the answer damng well better have to do with the welfare and progress of her Horses. she wanted to know more about Show Me. Rest in Peace Susy, you will never be alone. Tim, she loved you. kenxqed♪

“ My heart is broken ...because we lost a sweet and kind soul this week , way before her time .She always had a smile on her face and a kind word for all even those she really didn't even know .she was a care taker of all of those she loved and never really did the same for herself .She was a great mother ,wife ,sister , friend and daughter .I have been blessed to have had the grace to have known her .I will miss her greatly but never forget her I have great memories and the beautiful family she has left behind . She is in haven with her mom and dad now looking down on her family and friends with that beautiful smile . RIP my beautiful friend , I just wish I could have told just how much you meant to melove Laura

“ I am so sorry and shocked. I phone Susy for my yearly Xmas call, but caught her at work, so said I will call again on another day. I tried a few days later and reached her on her phone, but she said she was a Walmart. So, I said you call me Susy, I am in the book or use number on her cell phone. Well, I guess she got busy during the week and I did not get my Xmas fix with dear, sweet, Susy. I loved her Mother, Eva, and we were good friends, this was my way of keeping contact. She will be so missed by all. R I P.
