“ I learned of Terri's sudden and serious illness in Sunday morning worship at the Life Enrichment Center during prayer request time during the Older Adult Tapestry III Conference, but was extremely shocked and saddened when I returned home and read your e-mail message of her death. I will forever remember her beautiful talent and enthusiasm in assisting me with an area VBS training workshop while you all were at Big Bend and always felt close to her through Phyllis Rabb, my dear friend. My husband, Charles, and I are holding you and your children and all family in our prayers through this most difficult time. “ It is so hard to believe that we have lost Terri! She was so soft spoken and understanding. She helped so many people with her love of God and love of people. She had a way of listening to people's problems and saying the right words of comfort. I was an ESE Co-Teacher with Terri in 2004-2005 School year. She was always there to help when I needed help. She was always talking about her children. She was so proud of them and her husband, Mike. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends. I know beyond a shadow of doubt that she has gone to be with our Savior, Jesus Christ. My prayer and love to all, Ruth (Freeman)Montgomery

“ At times like this, words fail us. It is just so hard to believe the very sad news about our beautiful Terri. Terri is one of my best friends in this life, and I will miss her greatly. My heart is broken, broken, broken, but I thank God that His promises are true. Because she is a child of His, she's already there in heaven with Him! She's basking in the presence of our Lord! Even though I don't understand the "whys", I will choose to praise Him. 2 Corinthians 1:3 says, "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort." For those of us who are left behind without her, we have to remember that it's okay to cry - that's when we will find some healing. In the meantime, we will cling, with all of our might, to God's great comfort. To our beloved friend, Mike, to his & Terri's precious children, and to all those whose hearts are broken and aching with ours, please know that we are praying for you, crying with you, hugging you from afar, and trusting God with you. If there's anything we can do for you and your family, Mike, please let us know. We're all here for you. Love - Vicki (and for Rick, Missy, & John-Michael)

“ Father, In the mighty Name of Jesus, we ask You to wrap Mike and his family, and those of us who love them, in the sweet Comfortor of the Holy Spirit. We ask You to wipe the tears from our eyes with your gentle hand. We ask You to absorb our grief, and to fill all the empty places with Your presence. We know that Your will and timing is beyond understanding, and although we accept it, all we can do right now is to trust You. We reach out in the faith in the Living Everlasting Life of Jesus when our own earthly vision fails us. Father, we praise You for Terri's precious forever-life, knowing we will meet again soon. Thank You, that in knowing her, we have seen a glimpse of Heaven. Now help us in our frail humanity to put into practice all that You have been teaching us about Your Heaven. The treasure of Terri causes us to place our affections on things above. Hold us fast, dear Maker. Keep us close to Thee.
