“ I was shocked & saddened to learn that Terry had passed. I followed her for years with Sweet T Primitives & continued with Low Carb lifestyle. We we're both mothers of sons & shared their accomplishments & our intense love of motherhood. When my grandsons came along she was interested in them as well. Terry was bigger than life & her legacy will live on. My deepest sympathy to her beloved husband, son & her precious King Carter Marcia Kouns “ Teryy, you touched my life like no other I have met thru social media. From your love of helping others, to enabling us in providing items we didnt know we needed to buy till you showed us, to whipping us into getting on the low carb train! From the first time we chatted I was amazed at your love of family, country and being the best wife, mom and friend anyone could ask for,; but God needed you more. My deepest sympathy to the family and King Carter. Till we meet again..I miss you dearly!

“ Terry touched so many hearts and lives. Mine was one. You have been as gracious as she, inviting us in. My husband of many years walked on in April. I do understand your pain. Thank you for sharing her with us. Hugs and prayers to you all, including King Carter, from me, and my two Bouvier girls, Pouchie and Echo.

“ I was in her groups for low carb. I had seen her story in one of the magazines that someone gave me and decided to see if she had a facebook account.
she was a beautiful caring woman who I admired. She always tried to connect with everyone and never made you feel as if she was only interested in a certain few but she tried to connect with everyone. I really felt for the first time in a group that I wasn't in a group but that I was with friends and she cared about me. Even though we never met I will always remember and cherish what a wonderful human being she was. Love and prayers to her family, my heart is with you.

“ The thought of my Aunt Terry brings wonderful memories.

She was full of life - feisty and fun.

Her laugh is memorable to us all. One that could not help but erupt laughter from all those around her. My favorite ones were the ones that were uncontrollable.

She always made everyone feel like they were a big part of her life. You instantly felt at ease in her company.

She has touched many people's lives and is loved by so many people for a good reason. She was an incredibly brave person, and a great role model.

I have been so lucky to have been able to spend many happy moments with her.

We love you Aunt Terry for the way you loved us.

*Love always your niece,
Tania (Wynn) Hensley*

“ When someone we love falls asleep in death, the memories we have of them become our treasure. May those cherished memories and God's promise at John 5:28, 29 be your source of comfort and support.
