“ The Church family sends its most sincere condolences for the family of Theresa Tuberville. She will always be remembered here as a loving mother and grandmother.
No one can ever forget the joy she found with Layden playing his air guitar along with Pastor Daniel and even getting up front where we could all see him. Theresa had a heart filled with love for all of us here.

“ Theresa's place can never be filled, and her loss will be with us forever. But her memories should be treasured and her life celebrated for the amazing woman he was. She was a great friend to Barbie and we always enjoyed her visits to use the pool with the kids. Remember we be here for you whatever you need.
