“ Gene,

Words cannot convey the sorrow I feel for you, Debbie, Ken, Miki, Linda, Andre, and all your spouses and grandchildren. I pray that God will give you comfort and strength as you go through this valley. Terry was an inspiration and part of the fabric of our recovery community for the last four decades. She was committed, faithful, caring, honest, and open. She served our community with gratitude, enthusiasm, and the determination of one who climbs mountains, as she did. She had a way of making you feel like you were the most important person in the world and her subtle sense of humor made me laugh out loud countless times. She was a humble, kind, strong, and gentle woman. As much as she modeled how to live, she left one more lasting lesson. She showed us much about how to die. I can only hope that when my time comes, I will display and extend the same grace, generosity, love, and care for those whom I will leave behind, as Terry did. Of course, this was all made possible by the benevolence of your entire family. Thank you for holding the phone to her ear in those last days so that I and many others, could share our last words, pray, and say goodbye. You gave us a great gift. It is a comfort to know that Terry's spirit is in God's hands now. That is what the Bible says and Terry was fully confident of where she was going. She did not bury those gifts that God had given her as one did in the Parable of the Talents. She grasped hold of them and used them over and over again. She pointed us to Faith, Hope, Love, and Trust in God. She was an open book for all to read what God was writing on her heart as she sought Him daily in prayer and meditation. I can only imagine the joy on Terry's face as she hears those blessed words: "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Matthew 25:23. Terry lives in the Joy of the Lord, now, where there is no more sorrow, no tears, no illness, no suffering...there is only, love, worship, rest, and peace. What joy! Sadly, though, knowing all of that doesn't make you miss her any less. May God bless and comfort you as you learn to say goodbye to your precious wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, in-law, and friend. My prayers are with you and I hope it is *some comfort to know that Terry was loved and appreciated by so many. I will always remember her with gratitude, fondness, and love With Love and Respect,

Marilyn from CA*

“ Terry was a friend who inspired me to praise God, thank God, and turn my life over to Him every day. Her zest for life and love of family were inspirational. When you spoke with her she gave you her undivided attention and love. She is truly one of God's sweet angels. Rest in peace, my friend.
