“ Every time I teach Macbeth, I think of Tom, how he had cardboard figures for all the characters and he made the play come to life. My thoughts are with Mark and Erik and the rest of the family.

“ It is with great sadness that I see Tom's passing. Tom and I were teammates for many years on the golf team at Devilbiss High School.....and Tom was a most talented golfer! As close as the two of us were during those years, we all graduated and went in different directions, never to see each other since. I often wondered whatever happened to my friend, but it is almost impossible to find a person. He was always a positive, easy to like person, with a personality that always had us enjoying life. Upon reading his obituary, I see that he lived the last few years at the Villages outside of Ocala. For the last 45 years, I have been only 3 hours away, residing in Tarpon Springs, Florida. Had I only known! Rick Lehman, class of '64 DeVilbiss High School

“ Mr. Anderson was one of the best teachers I ever had. He had a passion that was rarely seen in any of my other teachers growing up. He had a golf club with the head removed and he would swing it around wildly as he would teach. Loved this guy... Rest In Peace Mr. Anderson...

“ I was one of Mr. Anderson's English and speech class students at Georgetown in the mid 70's. Through his classes and his direction of school plays, he inspired in me an interest in the short story and in the stage that continues to this day. Please accept my condolences.

“ Mark and Erik, I am very sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. Your Dad was a true friend who helped me grow as an educator during our time together at Georgetown. He was always so proud of both of you. I spoke with your Dad a few times since he moved to Florida. We would spend most of the time talking about you guys. I am truly sorry for your loss. Your Dad had a great impact during his life. Not just the students he had in class, but for all of us that called him friend, we cherish his influence. Tim

“ Dear Erik and Mark, So sorry to hear of your dad's death. 35 years ago, the young English teacher in Georgetown had a pretty big effect on my life. I was quite shy. But he discovered that I had a hidden talent for public speaking and theater and writing. It served me well through college, grad school and in my career. I enjoy them all still today. I think of him often. I am sorry for your loss. I hope that you too, are comforted by fond memories. Bill
