“ Dear Tom Words cannot even begin to express our sorrow. We were honored to know Tom, to have Tom a part of our family. His energy and support was a treat to us all. Tom was always the first to visit us in the hospital or our homes to support us in all that we needed. I will always be there for my sister MaryAnn and for their daughter Sharon, her family Jeff, Ashlee and Austin. Tom is in my heart forever. He is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Tom, You left us way too soon. I will always remember our good times on the golf courses and was looking forward to many more golf rounds with you. I am going to miss our back and forth banter on the fantasy football league and my trying to convert you to a full fledged Eagles fan! And believe it or not, I will miss trying to get a laugh out of you after preparing your tax returns every year! Also I wanted to thank you for your service to our country. You didn't talk about it much, but I knew you went through a lot over in Vietnam. You were one of the good guys and you will be missed. Godspeed and rest in peace, my friend
