“ Thomas, you were and still are my soul mate, I know you are looking down on me and feel your presence, but I have to tell you, this is not what I wanted nor thought how it would happen, I miss you beyond any expression I can think of, but I know you are walking with me, and I do find comfort and peace with that knowledge.

Until we meet again, please know I love you with everything possible in me, and please walk with Aaron, our son, who needs you now more than I do, Rest In Peace my love, it was too soon for you!

Love,

Kimberly, Icecream and Diesel

“Kim and Aaron, our deepest condolences in the loss of a wonderful man, a loving husband, a devoted father, and a lifelong friend to us. We look back on memories of happiness together and feel grateful to have had him in our lives. Tom was like a second dad to me growing up, his presence in our lives has left an impact on our family forever. Even as we shed tears over this loss, we are warmed by the memories, and grateful he was a mentor and friend to us all these years. There are people we meet in our lifetimes that become family, and no matter what - we hold them close to our hearts. Tom was one of those people, along with you Kim, and Aaron. We will always remember Tom - and one day we will be able to remember how lucky we were to have known his love with wonder, not grief. We pray for comfort and peace for you both and send our deepest love.
