“ Ruth and family, So sorry about Tom's passing. Very good friend from high school - lots of great memories. We went to senior prom in 1951. Fun times back then. He was the only one who had a car to drive to high school! I think many of the guys were envious. A great faith-filled person and active in all school activities. Will miss him. Remembering you and all the family in prayer. Sincerely, Judy

“ Dear Ruth & Family, so sorry for the loss of Thomas, your dear loving Husband & Father. It's also comforting to know what the Bible teaches: Most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs (grave) will...come out." (John 5:28,29) Death will be no more.....these words are faithful and true...Revelation 21: 3-5 In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise (park like) earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. The Bible says: "The righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it." Psalm 37:29. See also Job 14:14, 15; Luke 7:11-17; and Acts 24:15. for more Answers to your Questions go to: jw.org

“ The Road goes ever on and on Out from the door where it began. Now far ahead the Road has gone. Let others follow, if they can! Let them a journey new begin. But I at last with weary feet Will turn towards the lighted inn, My evening-rest and sleep to meet. — J.R.R. Tolkien, The Lord of the Rings

“ And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered? Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb. And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance. Kahlil Gibran
