Thomas 'Tom' Jefferson LeVines went to be with his Lord August 20th, 2022 while at Edgewater at Waterman Village in Mount Dora, FL. Tom's life can be summed up in his favorite sermon title, Love is a Spendthrift, based on the writings of Paul Scherer, "Love is a spendthrift, leaves its arithmetic at home, is always 'in the red.' And God is Love." Tom loved his Christ and as God commanded, his love extended to all people. No one knows how many lives he influenced through the years.

He married Shirley Mae Heflin on March 20th, 1954.

He pastored five congregations in Virginia and Florida, as well as serving many additional churches as interim, supply, and guest minister. He served Lyles Baptist Church (VA) for a combined 30 years as both his first and last ministries.

Tom was also passionate about working with his hands, skilled as a mechanic, builder, and woodworker. He rebuilt dozens of vehicles over the course of his lifetime. He built a large geodesic home for his family from his own customized designs, which featured a central spiral wood staircase. He crafted two cradles for his grandchildren and greatgrandchildren.
