“ Dear Ray and Norma, There is no words that can describe our deepest condolences to the both of you. I only know that as our good friends that we will weep and pray with the both of you threw all of these trying days now and ahead of you. There will always be a shinning star in the sky that you can look to and at and know that that is Tommy looking down to let you know that he is okay and with God now and he is watching over you. He was a sweetheart to us and we will always remember all that he has done for us. Our prayers and thoughts are with you each and every day and please call upon us for anything that you need. God Bless you both.
