

Thomas Allan Nurmi

October 16, 1948 - January 12, 2023

Thomas Allan "Tom" Nurmi died unexpectedly the afternoon of Thursday, 12 January 2023, at his home, in Umatilla, Florida at the age of 74. Tom was born on October 16, 1948 in Hackensack, New Jersey to parents John Albert Nurmi and Elizabeth Barrow Haring. As a young boy he lived in Saddle River, New Jersey. In 1956 his father built their home in Lake Worth, Florida. He graduated from Lake Worth High school and attended Palm Beach Jr. College while working at IBM's Boca Plant. He finished his degree in accounting at Florida State University in June 1976. He majored in accounting and was an active member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. He enjoyed sharing memories of good times he had while at FSU. Nicknamed "Chief" at Sigma Nu Tom always enjoyed making jokes and laughing with the people he was around. Following graduation, he worked for IBM in the general accounting and expense division for 30 years. On 20 August 1977, he married Marjorie "Marge" Esco Nurmi. To that union, he had two children, Elizabeth Ann and James Paul Nurmi. Tom enjoyed coaching baseball and softball while his children were younger and attended every game they played through the years. He also enjoyed collecting and selling sports memorabilia and was one of eBay's first power sellers. He was predeceased by his father, John Albert "Al" Nurmi [1916-1987]; mother, Elizabeth Haring "Betty" Nurmi [1921-2000]; brother, Lawrence Albert "Larry" Nurmi [1946-1999]; daughter Elizabeth Ann "Beth" Nurmi [1980-2018]. Tom is survived by his wife, Marjorie Esco Nurmi; son, James Nurmi his wife Laura Nurmi; and grandchildren, Addison, Christian, and Dylan Nurmi; sister and her husband, Carole Cummings & Martin B. Cummings. He is also survived by his niece, Jacqueline Lunt; nephews, Christopher and Gregory Cummings. Services for Tom will be held at Frist Baptist church of Paisley, February 4th at 3 pm.
