“ I miss you so much Pop-Pop. Every time I pull into the driveway and get out of my car, I can still hear you calling my name to come over. You've been the center of so many laughs, so much love, and great memories with our family, I don't know what we'll do without you. But I know you're still here with us, I wear one of your rings on a chain around my neck as a reminder of that. It's funny Mom mentioned "Down on the Corner" because I too heard it on the radio, and it brought a big smile to my face. I know it's your way of keeping connected with us. Love you, and miss you everyday.

“ you taught me how to love unconditionally, patience, respect and of course to laugh. There was always laughter, for this I thank you, dad. You are still here in all of us. Driving to work today I was searching for a song that reminded me of you and there it was, "Down on the Corner" yes and I laughed, so I know you're still here. I love you dad and miss you very much. Til we meet again.

“ Dear Pop-pop, I went into your room the other day and sat for a moment and looked around. I was searching for a sense that you were still around...something with your smell...something, anything. All I found was medical items, hospital items. You weren't there. I miss you. I was thinking about what the mass will be like on Tuesday. Then that reminded me of when I used to go to mass there at St. Timothy's with you and Gammy. Remember when it was time to stand and say The Our Father - when it was time to join hands and raise them up, how you would try to pull my hand down just to mess with me? I just smiled and laughed remembering this... Oh how I will miss you. We all miss you. Love you always.

“ I will always miss my Pop-Pop. His sense of humor was always uplifting. He had a way of making me laugh. The camping trips and late-night television shows we watched together are moments I will always cherish. I'll never forget his last words to me on Monday morning: "I love you. I love you very much."

“ Jennifer, my heart and prayers go out to you and your family. May the God of al comfort be with you all. May you find comfort in knowing that "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints". To God and your grandfather this is a glorious home coming. Thank the Lord we will all be together again some day. With love, Judy
