“ Though as Christians, we truly believe that you are now in God;s presence and will never ever have human sufferings to endure, we will miss you so much. We should not question God's reasons for taking you, but it is still so hard to know that we will not be able to have you with us until it is our own individual turn for the end our own faith journey. May God eternally hold you in the palm of His hand. As your former Religious Education teacher I will treasure the happy and sad times we shared when you were but a very young man. Rest in peace, Tim. You will forever be loved by all who mourn your loss. Rob & Terry
