Known for his jovial spirit, Timothy had a gift for making everyone feel welcome as if they were family. His laughter was contagious, stories were compelling, and his wisdom was a source of strength for those around him. Timothy could be found preparing his lawn for award level manicuring, ensuring safe chauffeuring of his grandchildren and loved ones, or participating in his favorite hobby of shopping for the correct size and color baked potatoes.

He was a man who selflessly gave more than could ever be returned - always ready to lend a helping hand, share a kind word, or offer a prayer.

A devoted provider having retired from CSX after 47 years of service, Timothy took great pride in caring for his family. He built a life grounded in faith, integrity, and generosity. He will be deeply missed, forever cherished, and always remembered. It is our hope that his legacy, faith, and kindness lives on in each person that had the honor of knowing him.

Timothy was a proud and active member at Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Oxford, Florida where his celebration of life will be held on Thursday July 17th, 2025. Viewing will begin at 10:00am, service by Pastor Cameron Cato at 11:00am, followed by a procession to his graveside service at Pine Level Cemetery. “ My favorite story is when I slipped up and called him Peanut...Even though I was technically an adult, that did not make it ok. He did a double take and I got the look....I said I'm sorry at least 20 times and then I got the smirk. But I never made that mistake again. I will miss him so much. I loved every moment I spent with him, except for one....when Lana and I ended up in the hospital bc of a four-wheeler accident...that happened on the day we were planning to have a party at his house while he was out of town working. But unlike most parents, he didn't blame me, he blamed me and Lana, and he still loved me. I'm blessed to have known him.

“ Very sad to hear this Tim peanut was a very good friend of mine. I started working with him when he was conductor in Okeechobee later on in Port Lauderdale West Palm Beach along with both Sanders, got a lot of funny stories I could tell but the best thing about Tim was he always showed up ready to work? I can't ever remember out of all the years we work together. I'm having a bad day or a bad time. He will certainly be missed and you were very blessed to have him for a dad a friend a husband and I'm very happy to know. He was a good Christian man. We'll see him again. God bless all love you. Gone too soon but certainly not forgotten and oh yes, he could make your grand. We had some big laughs. He was a happy man rest in peace brother.
