

Timothy P. Keating

March 21, 1959 - July 12, 2022

Tim was born in Syracuse New York, raised by his mother Sharon Marie Keating, They moved to Florida when he was in elementary school .His mother passed in 1992 . She worked in the hospitality field and he spent much of his time working with her which led to him becoming a manager for Morrison's Cafeteria for 20 years. He developed a passion for cooking, worked on fishing boats out of St Petersburg, and eventually went into construction. Tim was a very hardworking family man and loved anything to do with water ,the outdoors,football, and motorcycles.

He is survived by his children: Danielle and Darrell Keating and his grandchildren: Emmanuel ,Ladisa,Caiden, and Camden. Tim is missed by many family, friends, and his #1 loyal right pawed companion, Charlie Brown, his beloved dog. He will be dearly missed.

“ 43 years ago today Tim and I were leaving for Texas. The skyway bridge was falling down! I went to look him up and found his obituary. Can someone please tell me what happened? Last I knew he remarried. His first born and my twins were born within days of each other.

He remains in my heart.
