Obituary of Tommy Holbrook

Tommy L. Holbrook, of the Village of Winifred, went home to meet his LORD on Wednesday May 4th after a long illness. He is survived by his soul mate and number one fan Judy Holbrook. He is also survived by his three sons and three step children; Lane and his wife Amy, Brian and his wife Katie, Marc and his wife Lauren, Paris Hudnall II and his wife Angie, Charles Hudnall, and Amy Fields and her husband Mark.

He was blessed with sixteen grandchildren, Jessica Daniels and her husband Dominique, Joshua Holbrook, Jackson Holbrook, Bryce Holbrook, Colton Holbrook, Shea Holbrook, Tucker Holbrook, Finley Holbrook, Emery Holbrook, Paris Hudnall III, Jennifer Weber, Michelle Hudnall, Nicholas Hudnall, Jacob Fields, Carter Fields, and Hayley Fields. He also had 5 great grandchildren.

Tom spent his life loving his family and his friends. He loved to give of himself, and anyone lucky enough to have met him will agree that they were the better for it. To everyone who allowed yourself to be a part of his amazing life, who willingly or unwillingly provided material for his stories - you're welcome!! You've been immortalized and the fifteen minutes of fame he bestowed upon you have undoubtedly blessed more lives than you can imagine. For those of you reading this who never got the chance to know him I am truly sorry. You have no idea the joy you've missed out on in this life.

In the end he had one request... "I want to go home. I want to see my LORD!" I asked, as he pointed to the sky, if "home" was up in the air and he passed on his last bit of wisdom to me... "That's where it starts. I love you all so much..." and then he slept.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, May 7, 2016, 11:00 AM at New Covenant United Methodist Church.

“ I enjoyed Tom's column very much. He had a quick wit and a great out look on life. My husband was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer a few months before Tom and and when I read that he too was in a battle for his life I couldn't wait each week for his next update. My husband passed in December and much like your Tom will be missed by all who knew him..

“ Dick and I will always remember Tom with those twinkling bright eyes and his easy smile. When he talked with you Tom was really interested and he enjoyed the conversation. He made you feel special. We were traveling this past week and finally arrived home today. We offer our condolences with Love to Judy and the family.

“ Although I was never lucky enough to meet Tom in person, I felt like I knew him through his columns that I enjoyed for the last few years. My prayer for the family is that they can take comfort in the fact that he is with the Lord and no longer in pain.

“ Tom was my favorite friend in life. We grew up together in Belle, WV. I have wonderful memories of our days & nights playing & walking the streets of Belle. One day we will walk the streets of heaven & recall our good times on earth. Rest in peace friend.
