“ Tracy had a beautiful smile and laugh. She was my daughter in law and a member of our family for over 30 years. During the early years our family would get together during football season and all bring food to eat while we enjoyed the game. We would, swim, play games, ride horses, attend different games all the kids were in and enjoy our time together. We moved away and I miss those times. I can still hear her laugh. She and Steve had 3 beautiful, wonderful children and 6 engaging grandchildren. I have special fond memories of our times together. She will be greatly missed by all her family.
